Warm Up Your Story Brain

Before you start today's computer lesson, warm up your story brain with these! Write your answers neatly in the space below each question.

1. Think of your favorite book, show, or movie. Write the name of the MAIN CHARACTER.

2. Where does that story take place (the SETTING)?

3. Draw a quick picture of that character below.

4. Write ONE word that describes that character (brave, funny, kind...).

5. Have you ever gone on a hike or outdoor adventure? Write 1–2 sentences about it.

Show What You Learned

Great work on today's lesson! Now show off what you learned about character, setting, and inferring.

1 In 3–4 sentences, retell what happened in Theo's story this week.

2 Write TWO clues from the story that show the SETTING (WHERE and WHEN).

3 Choose one trait that describes Theo and explain WHY using a story clue. (This is inferring!)

★ Challenge: Write your OWN 3-sentence story with a character and a setting. Underline the setting details.

Looking Ahead: Next week we'll read about how characters solve PROBLEMS. Write one problem a character in a story might face!

Social Studies Checkpoint: Unit 2

Name: _____ Date: _____

PRE-LESSON WARM-UP · DO THIS BEFORE YOUR COMPUTER LESSON

Before the Checkpoint: What I Remember

Look back at Weeks 6–9. Write what you remember. It is OK to be unsure!

1. Name one need and one want. How can you tell them apart?

2. Name one good and one service you might find at Grandpa's Trading Post.

3. Name one person or nation from Unit 2. What do you remember about them?

4. Draw a landform or a body of water. Label it.

5. What from Weeks 6–9 are you unsure about? What part is tricky?

POST-LESSON CHALLENGE · DO THIS AFTER YOUR COMPUTER LESSON

After the Checkpoint: My Unit 2 Social Studies

Show what you learned across the whole unit. Use people and sources as evidence.

1. Tell about a choice you made. What was your opportunity cost?

2. Pick one product. Tell the steps it takes from raw material to you. Who are the producers?

3. Whose story? Pick a place or event from Unit 2. Whose story was left out? Why does it matter to tell it?

4. Which Unit 2 person would you most like to meet? What would you ask them?

★ Challenge: Draw a map of a make-believe valley with a river, a forest and farm fields. Put a town and a Trading Post on it. Write one good and one service the Trading Post sells, and why your town fits the land.

Looking Ahead: Unit 3 starts next week with symbols and holidays of the United States: the flag, the Liberty Bell and the Statue of Liberty. Bring a question: Whose story does a holiday tell, and whose story might it leave out?
