The Night the Calf Came Early: Punctuating Dialogue

Name: _____ Date: _____

PRE-LESSON WARM-UP · DO THIS BEFORE YOUR COMPUTER LESSON

Pre-Lesson Warm-Up: Talking on the Page

Before the lesson, show what you already know about writing what characters say. Do your best. It is fine to guess!

1. Add quotation marks around Grandpa's exact words: Grandpa said, The barn is warm.

2. Which sentence is punctuated correctly?

   "Grab your boots," Grandpa said. | "Grab your boots". Grandpa said. | Grab your boots, "Grandpa said."

3. Rewrite with the correct capital letters: nadia said, "the snow is deep."

4. Add the missing comma: "Let's feed the calves" Nadia said.

5. Review: At the start of a story a girl says, "I can't do this." At the end she says, "I did it!" What does this show?

   Character change | Text structure | The author's purpose is to inform

The Night the Calf Came Early: Punctuating Dialogue

Name: _____ Date: _____

POST-LESSON CHALLENGE · DO THIS AFTER YOUR COMPUTER LESSON

Post-Lesson Challenge: Dialogue Editor

Now use every dialogue rule you practiced today. Check quotation marks, commas, capitals, end marks and paragraphs.

1. Rewrite with correct punctuation and capitals: grandpa asked is clover okay

2. Find and fix the TWO mistakes: "we did it", Nadia shouted.

3. This conversation is written as one paragraph. Rewrite it correctly as two paragraphs: "Is the calf warm?" Nadia asked. "Warm as toast," Grandpa said.

4. Nadia is trying not to wake the sleeping calf. Which tag fits best?

   shouted whispered hollered called

5. Writing: Write 4 lines of dialogue between Nadia and Grandpa the next morning when they visit Blizzard. Use a tag BEFORE a quote at least once and AFTER a quote at least once, start a new paragraph for each speaker, and let the dialogue show how one character feels.

★ Challenge: Write a short scene (6 to 8 lines) set on a farm, in a city, or in a village where two characters disagree about something. Use dialogue to show each character's viewpoint, start a new paragraph for each speaker, and use only ONE strong tag (like muttered or called) in the whole scene.

Looking Ahead: Week 12: Informative writing. You will build strong paragraphs with topic sentences, supporting details and transition words while touring an apartment building going up in Houston.

When Worlds Met

Name: _____ Date: _____

PRE-LESSON WARM-UP · DO THIS BEFORE YOUR COMPUTER LESSON

What Do I Already Know?

Write what you know right now. Guesses are fine; this is your starting point.

1. What have you heard about Christopher Columbus? Write two things.

2. Who was already living in the Caribbean when Columbus arrived? Write what you know or guess.

3. Prediction: When people from two different worlds meet for the first time, what might each side gain? What might each side lose?

4. Guess: Name two foods you eat that you think first grew in the Americas.

5. Write one question you have about what happened after 1492.

POST-LESSON CHALLENGE · DO THIS AFTER YOUR COMPUTER LESSON

What Did I Learn?

Use evidence from today's lesson. Write in complete sentences.

1. Using Columbus's journal as evidence, explain what he planned for the Taíno. Quote or describe his words.

2. Name one thing that moved from the Americas and one that moved to the Americas in the Columbian Exchange. Who benefited, and who paid the cost?

3. Choose Hatuey, Las Casas or Estevanico. Explain what that person did and why their story matters.

4. Whose voice is missing from most written records of 1492? How could historians learn more about it?

★ Challenge: Many old books say Columbus "discovered" the Americas. Rewrite that idea so it is accurate and fair, then explain your change in one sentence.

Looking Ahead: Next week is the Unit 1 Checkpoint, where you show what you learned in Weeks 1 to 4. Bring this question: which source from this unit helped you understand the past the best, and why?

Florida's First Nations

Name: _____ Date: _____

PRE-LESSON WARM-UP · DO THIS BEFORE YOUR COMPUTER LESSON

What Do I Already Know?

Answer what you can. Guessing is fine; this is just to find out what you already know.

1. Name any Indigenous nation you know of that lived in Florida, long ago or today.

2. Prediction: People in south Florida long ago lived near the ocean. How do you think they got most of their food?

3. Draw an outline of Florida. Mark where you think people lived long ago, and label one place.

4. What is one question you have about how we can learn about people who did not write books?

5. Why might a story written by a visitor be different from the story the people would tell about themselves?

Florida's First Nations

Name: _____ Date: _____

POST-LESSON CHALLENGE · DO THIS AFTER YOUR COMPUTER LESSON

Show What You Learned

Use evidence from the lesson in your answers.

1. Match each nation to its homeland in a sentence or two: Calusa, Timucua, Apalachee, Tequesta.

2. Compare: How was the Calusa way of getting food different from the Apalachee way? Give a reason.

3. Name one piece of archaeological evidence and one Spanish record from the lesson. Which point of view is missing from both?

4. Cause and effect: Give two causes for why most of Florida's original nations were gone by the 1700s.

★ Challenge: Who benefited and who paid the cost when Spain and England came to Florida? Explain in two or three sentences, and name one nation that still lives in Florida today.

Looking Ahead: Next Florida Focus lesson: Spanish Florida, St. Augustine and Fort Mose, a free Black town. Bring this question: How could a Spanish colony also become a place where people escaping slavery sought freedom?
